

Supplier Quality Specialist This is a full-time permanent professional position. This role would be responsible for planning, organizing, & executing the overall supplier quality activities related to the qualification, implementation and maintenance of supplied products while also ensuring that supplier quality systems, processes and activities are capable of producing reliable product. The Supplier Quality Specialist is someone who can think at a strategic level and engage with suppliers at a tactical one to ensure that product meets or exceeds customer's expectations.

Responsibilities include new product qualification; coordinating supplier activity; participating in engineering change projects; lead continuous improvement initiatives; provide timely guidance and decision making on quality related issues; create, maintain and analyze supplier and product quality related metrics to identify adverse trends and implement opportunities for improvements; coordinate and carry out warranty programs with suppliers; lead or support quality auditing of suppliers; evaluate supplier non-conformances; and other related responsibilities.

Qualified candidates must have a 4 year degree, or equivalent work experience. Must have experience with supplier quality and qualification. Successful candidates will have strong critical thinking, problem solving and communication skills and be able to work with a cross functional team. Minimal travel is required.

Standard hours are Monday through Friday from 8am - 5pm.

If interested, apply online at www.expresspros.com or call Autumn Herber at Express Employment Professionals at 507-457-3311. Email your resume to autumn.herber@expresspros.com.